Nonscorable Flags/Reasons	Samples/Explanation	Solutions/Revise and Edit and resubmit for scores
Too Short Essays will be flagged as "Too Short" if they do not contain periods, they contain fewer than 50 words, or if they contain fewer than three sentences. In order to receive scores, essays must have at least 50 words and at least three punctuated sentences.	Sample 1 – Essay has fewer than three punctuated sentences. I don't disagree or agree because I think homework is good and bad foryou at the same time like forexample, a student can not get sleep for doing theirhomework and get an A but the student didn't get enough rest so now they dont wanna do anything else like participating in P.E or sleeping in class One pro is that the kid has a higher chance of going to college and they mostly only spend 30- 40 minuets and they score 40 points higher but the essay says that high achieving students say that they get to much homework and they also say that they get health issues	Solution – Collaborate with a partner. Read the essay aloud to determine where natural starts and stops occur. • Look for "and" and "so" as possible locations to add periods. Then remove "and" and "so" to begin the next sentence. • Substitute other transitions for "and" and "so." For example, use "In addition" or "Also," at the beginning of sentences. • Look for places to change "but" to "however." Capitalize and add a comma – However, • ADD MORE CONTENT Use the Word Bank!
Off Topic Essays will be flagged as "Off Topic" if AI detects that they do not contain enough relevant keywords related to the prompt task. This may occur if the writer does not understand the prompt or writes a response to a different prompt or topic.	Sample 1 – Topic "Animal for a Day" Student pasted the essay in the wrong prompt. Students may not know how to effectively manage their time and as a result. may not be abel to balance work, school, and leisure. For instance, students may not have time to hang out with friends and family, their grades may slip if they don't have time to complete homework, they may drop extracurricular activities that could be beneficial to them, etc.	Solution Always reread the prompt at the top of the screen before working on an essay or story to make sure that the writing is on the same topic as the prompt.
Repetitious Essays will be flagged as "Repetitious" if they contain repeated paragraphs, sentences, or phrases. Sometimes, the writer copies and pastes existing section to add length to the submission.	Sample 1 – Student repeats "homework" and "homework is bad" in a single paragraph. I think that homework is bad for your because it can get you stress for the next day or even worry. I believe that homework will be bad for you because it will make you	Solution - Collaborate with a partner. Read the essay aloud. Note any words/phrases that are repeated more than 3 times in a single paragraph. To remove repeated words/phrases reword or combine sentences or find synonyms to replace repeated words or phrases.

Furthermore, if the writer restates the same facts over and over again, this flag may appear.	stress for a test you have to do or maybe you don't know what to do. I think that homework is something that student don't want to do after a long day in school of studying and after they think they are done doing work, then they have to find out they have to work at home to and completed. I think that homework is bad for your education because it just put more work on your hands and some student just want to relax after the are done doing work at school and they do not want to do more work at home. I think that homework is bad for your education because it will make you stress and worry about what will happen if they don't finish it and they will all so have thing to do at home so homework will just stack up with the other work you will have to do. I think that homework is bad for your education because homework will make you struggle at home if you have to take care of your siblings and home will just make it worst and homework will just make your grade go down by, missing homework your grade will just slowly go down down down.
Major Syntax Errors Essays will be flagged for "Major Syntax Errors" when words appear in a non-standard order according to their parts of speech, or when there are too many grammar errors, or when sentences are too long and do not use adequate punctuation. Additionally, if the writer frequently misuses commas, periods, capitalization, or other forms of mechanics and conventions, the essay will be flagged. Lengthy essays that use few or no periods will receive this flag as well.	Sample 1 Student does not provide a space after each period. Although vaping has become a popular choice amongst some,experts warm about the potential risks.I believe that people shouldn't vape because many deaths and illnesses have been caused by vaping,it can cause fires and explosions,and it has made many people addicted to nicotine. Sample 2 – Student copied and pasted text, leaving 3 or more spaces between each line. In today's society, victims of dog attacks believe that laws that ban ¨Pit bulls¨ should be enforced because they are vicious, scary, and violent dogs; however, cynophilist believe that laws that ban ¨Pit bulls¨ should not be enforced because	Solution – Collaborate with a partner. • Reread the essay slowly. Add one space after each period. • Reread the essay, if there is more than space between each paragraph, delete the space. • Look for "and" and "so" as possible locations to add periods. Then remove "and" and "so" and capitalize the beginning of the next sentence. Reread to make sure it makes sense. • Substitute other transitions for "and" and "so." For example, use "In addition" or "Also," as the beginning of sentences. • Look for places to change "but" to "however." Capitalize and add a comma – However, Use the Word Bank

they are playful, protective, and energetic dogs. Dogs are wonderful companions to have around, particularly pit bulls given the fact that they protect their owners from attacks of humans, coyotes, foxes, etc.

Sample 3 Student omits most capitals and periods

First off all Walter would not be a good ideal dinner companion because anything can cause him a distraction and cause him to put people at risk or himself like in This part of the story Walter speeds not a normal limit because he is daydreaming about being in some type of war that the commander in his daydream told him to go "Full strength in No.3 turret" as in making him go faster than the usual speed he goes, he speed the car more than 40 mph and if he kept speeding he could of made things go bad but they didn't because his wife had to tell him he was speeding at a non normal speed limit.

Too Many Unknown Words Essays will be flagged for "Too Many Unknown Words" when they contain too many uncommon or misspelled words. Essays will also receive this flag if they are written in another language or if there are random characters included in the essay.	Sample 1 – Student wrote in Spanish no pue den tar va gar por ce nos me noer de edan	Solution - Write in English - Make sure that if you copy/paste from another source, you first paste in "plain text" in a word document before pasting into MY Access! - Use MY Editor to correct spelling errors.
