

Viewing the Teacher's Special Instructions

Teachers may be providing some special instructions so that you can better understand what is expected. You can see those instructions in two places.

When you are on your assignment page you will see a red star next to the prompt name. Click the star to read the teacher's special instructions!

Here is an example of what Sally Jones saw when she was on her assignment page. You might see something different.

Your grade will depend on the following:

1. You must have a claim and at least three arguments
2. Each argument must be backed up with at least two pieces of evidence
3. You must discuss the counterclaim and provide a counter argument
4. You must use at least four of the vocabulary words we discussed as well as good transitions

You can also read the teacher's instructions when they are on your writing page. See the drop-down menu for the Prompt. The Special Instructions are found there. Select them and they will appear in the prompt area.
