

Email Archiving Service Setup

The email archiving feature in AMPED provides the client company with the flexibility to utilize the email platform of their choice when associating email activity records. Once the site administrator has configured the Email Archiving Service account, site users may begin to include the address in business communications to track important email conversations for future reference. For detailed instructions on how to configure the Email Archiving Service, use the document below.

AMPED Email Archiving Setup Guide.docx